

Caithness Astronomy Group

Invite you to the Wild Skies Weekend

on Friday 15 March and Saturday 16 March

Friday 15 March – Castlehill Heritage Centre, Castletown

- 6.45pm Comet spotting with the Caithness Astronomy Group
- 7.30pm Professor Andy Lawrence of the Edinburgh Royal Observatory will be giving a free public talk – “Hunting the Dragon” – followed by a stargazing session. Warm clothing essential, bring a torch. Children welcome if accompanied by a parent/guardian

Contacts:

- Gordon Mackie (chairman)
gpmackie@hotmail.co.uk
- Alan Kennedy (secretary)
alanfiona@live.co.uk
- www.spanglefish.com/caithnessastronomygroup

Saturday 16 March – Thurso High School, Thurso

- 1.30pm Solar observing and other activities for all the family
- 2.30pm Professor Andy Lawrence of the Edinburgh Royal Observatory will be giving a free public talk – “Our Place in the Universe”

Saturday 16 March – Seadrift, Dunnet Beach car park

- 6.30pm Comet observing and photography session. Children welcome if accompanied by a parent/guardian. Members of Wick Camera Club will be on hand to assist with photographs, so bring your camera and tripod. If the weather is bad, there will be a free talk on comets at Castlehill Heritage Centre.

